MEDIA RELEASE
December 10th, 2014

The ECA congratulates Deborah Thomas-Felix on her reappointment as President of the Industrial Court

The Employers’ Consultative Association of Trinidad and Tobago (ECA) congratulates Her Honour Mrs Deborah Thomas-Felix on her re-appointment to the position of President of the Industrial Court of Trinidad and Tobago for a second consecutive term effective December 13th, 2014. The ECA acknowledges Mrs Thomas-Felix’s initial appointment as the first female President of the Industrial Court and is cognisant of her invaluable contributions to the jurisprudence of the Industrial Court her leadership in administering its activities and processes.

As the premier employer’s representative in Trinidad and Tobago, the ECA looks forward to continued collaboration and dialogue with the Industrial Court in perpetuating the maintenance of good industrial relations practices and policies in Trinidad and Tobago.

About the Employers Consultative Association (ECA)

The ECA is a not-for-profit organisation that provides quality representation as the leading national voice in public and legislative debates on Industrial Relations-related issues affecting the Employer community.

Linda Besson
Executive Director

For further information, kindly contact:
Antonette Brotherson-Brusco
Team Leader Public Relations and Communications
Telephone: 675-9388 Ext 226
E-mail: abrothersonbrusco@ecatt.org